3. CHALLENGES OR ASSISTANCE NEEDED:

The Capital District Kiwanis Family Committee on Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging has seen many successes in the first half of the 2022-2023 Kiwanis year. The committee placed a DEIB consideration topic for each month in the Capital District Club Resource Guidebook. This gives clubs a conversation starter each month to launch into a relevant DEIB-related topic. The committee is using a task force model this year, allowing committee members to assist with specific short-term projects. This has increased committee participation, with every member already volunteering to assist with at least one project. The first task force was created in October 2022 and successfully planned and executed the committee's first online educational offering – a webinar titled "Why DEI?" on November 30 via Zoom. The next session on "Creating a Sense of Belonging In Your Club" is scheduled for February 22 via Zoom. Additional future online and in-person educational sessions are already being planned for 2023. Discussions have begun on how we might propose a new position within each club – the DEI Coordinator or DEI Chairperson, much like all clubs are expected to assign a member to serve as the Membership and Public Relations chair. This idea is in development, and a recommendation, position description, and proposal for implementation are forthcoming. A small group of committee members is planning an in-person workshop session for CKI DCON / Kiwanis Mid-Year. Another small group of Key Club members on this committee is putting together a DEIB workshop for Key Club District Convention, a session that will be repeated twice during the conference.

4. COMMENTS:

After a successful November event, and in light of the fact that our February event is fast approaching, all members of the Capital District Kiwanis Family leadership must work with Kiwanis Lt. Governors, Key Club Lt. Governors, and CKI District Board members to spread the word about our online educational offerings to ensure adequate participation and engagement. Diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging are important, and all clubs should participate somehow!
