Several divisions postponed/rescheduled CLE training due to lack of registration. It is unknown what the reason(s) for lack of registration. Have we not done a good job getting the word out about the CLE training? Is it that people are beginning to travel again during the summer? Have our leaders been through this training multiple times and don't feel they have anything to learn? It would be interesting to know why there has been a lack of registration/participation.

4. COMMENTS (use continuation sheet if necessary):
