3. CHALLENGES OR ASSISTANCE NEEDED (use continuation sheet if necessary):

The new club we opened, Rockbridge, is doing very well. Our club opening in Harbour View has hit some snags. We have made two in person trips to Harvour View but only have ten members. We have another approximately 12 reasonable prospects, but have not yet been able to get them to join We are running another targeted facebook campaign and Rhonda Vrell and our local team of Richard Pippin, Paul Miller and Bob Reilly will make a concentrated effort to get the club to the needed 15 members on May 23.

We plan to open two new clubs in West Point and Northern King William, Virginia. That on ground recruiting for both clubs will take place on May 28-30

4. COMMENTS (use continuation sheet if necessary):

Helping club become stronger is impossible to measure. Our overall new members this Kiwanis year is down from the number at this time last year. The Assistant Membership Coordinator for Club Strengthening, Dennis Baugh, has held zoom calls with the Trustee and LTGs in each region which will helpfully gain traction in helping clubs throughout the district. Two of my recent columns for the Capital Kiwanian focused on strengthening clubs and I did a seminar on that subject at MidYear
