(continued) She spoke on the Guide to Growing your club, month by month, and person to person. She noted that by adding a new member each month, a club has more hands and more money for service, more administrative dollars, and more community awareness. Angie made many points to benefit a club as they try to increase membership. We thank her for making the trip from her home in Galva on a threatening night weather-wise to present this program to us.

Club News:

Dessert: Ice Cream Bars were our dessert treat tonight provided by DAVE McINTIRE (Apr. 3rd) and WAYNE GRADERT (Apr. 4th) in celebration of their birthdays. Thanks to both of you for the treat and we joined in wishing you a Happy Birthday and many more to come.

(Dave McIntire and Wayne Gradert)

Attendance: Tonight a small group of members met even though the weather was threatening rain, hail, and a possible tornado in the area. Besides Angie Burford, our guest speaker, our newly approved Kiwanis member Rev. Barry Wynveen attended tonight's dinner meeting
