The Kiwanis Club of East Lansing Candy Hunt was back in full form this past Saturday, April 16 at Patriarche Park. More than 200 parents and children stopped by to hunt for candy and enjoy the brisk Saturday weather. Thanks to our volunteers Dick Stilwell, Chet & Fran Lewis, Norbert Kerr, Laura Lockwood, Dave Bueche, John Merton, Ken Dimoff, Dave Regan & Scott Greenlee who braved the Michigan morning. Two of East Lansing's finest police officers joined us to start the hunt! Many of our participants brought a kids book for our literacy program. Check out these photos of a fun time!

No Kid Sleeps on the Floor in Our Town

- Ready to help build a bed so that "No Kids Sleeps on the Floor in Our Town"? Mark your calendar for Saturday, May 21 at Lake Lansing Park South, Marsh Road. This is the project that local Kiwanis clubs are coordinating and sponsoring the beds. The beds will stay in the local area as determined by Sleep in Heavenly Peace. Registration starts at 8am. The project starts at 9am SHARP with a safety briefing. Sign up here or let Sue know and she will sign you up. Volunteers are needed for:

- Measure & Cut - 2 volunteers needed
- Sanding - 25 volunteers needed
- Tap holes for headboards and siderails - 7 volunteers needed
- Drill press - 6 volunteers needed
- Assembly: Headboard and siderails - 9 volunteers needed
- Quality Control - 4 volunteers needed
- Staining & diptank - 1 volunteer needed
- Runners - 4 volunteers needed

Our club continues to deliver weekend survival kits. If you have a little extra time on Thursdays, please connect with Barbara Hollstein. An extra hand or two, and a vehicle, are always welcome. Here's the delivery dates for this semester.
