Kiwanis Announcements: Christie Crahan announced she went shopping at Ralphs and got 231 cans of tuna for the Bailey Center. They were thrilled. Martha Burns read a couple of belated thank you notes from 2 of our scholarship recipients. She had previously shared other ones already received. The students are all very appreciative of our generosity.

Upcoming Key Clubs: Christie Crahan is working on some interclub meetings.

Health News: Please contact Dani Hydar if you know of someone who needs a card or cheering up. Marie Hyland fell and ended up in the hospital but feeling better now and we hope to see her soon. Cindy Bradford also fell on a food run and is recouping at home and not attending the meeting today. So people stay safe and be careful.

H.A.M.S.: Chris Ecker started us out by giving $5 as we waws hiking up to a lake in the Sierra's with his son and son's girlfriend. The girl caught her first fish ever! They went as far as the upper lakes, which are still frozen. He somehow cut his finger and needs a lot of flesh to grow back. Brian Hummel gave $10 for two reasons: A big thank you to the Barley's who will be covering his food run while he is in the Netherlands. His son and family have moved their for a 2-year work project and he is excited to visit. Martha Burns gave $5 as she & Tom are taking their 2 granddaughters to Portland, Seattle & Victoria for a week. When each grandchild is 13, they ask them to select a US city of their choice to visit and off they go. The two sisters (12 & 14) wanted to travel together. Dick Barley gave $10 as he and Evie went to one of their favorite restaurants at the beach - Duke's. On the drive there they saw about 300 bike riders-all were naked!

Program/Speaker: Service Project-Folding Bags for The Bailey Center. With our club as an assembly line, we were able to fold and provide hundreds of bags donated by our members-many from the Cable family. They will be much appreciated. Thanks to all who helped on this very easy but worthwhile project.
