H.A.M.S.:

Marie Hyland ($10) – She was very surprised that someone went into her garage and stole her daughter's laptop and more, so she has begun to lock her garage.

Chris Ecker ($5) – Going down his street he came across multiple cups of coffee laying in the road, come to find out that his neighbor put them on the top of his car and started driving. Oops!

Evie Barley ($5) – She has had a small water leak at home for a couple months but could never find the link. Finally, her gardener found it and repaired the pipe so her water bill should return to normal.

Tom Petersmeyer ($10) – He is happy that his wife is going on a trip to visit family out of state, but she will be home to help him celebrate his birthday next week!

Brian Hummel ($5) – While his wife stayed home during Brian's recent travels (because she was sick), she was successful in getting a homeowners policy with AAA after they were dropped from Liberty Mutual without reason. The great news is that their bundle of home & car insurance with AAA is $4,000 cheaper per year now. Way to go Moira!

Christie Crahan ($20) – She is very excited about her trip to Europe! She is thrilled to be attend her granddaughter's kindergarten graduation this week! She proudly that Brian Hummel is our Kiwanian of the Month for May and recognized the MANY ways he supports our club!

Rosemary Hook ($5) – She is happy for her daughter, Judy, who is retiring from teaching. Job well done!
