H.A.M.S.:

Rosemary Hook ($50) – She is happy for her daughter and son-in law that have both just retired from their careers as teachers in Glendale Unified School District. Judy will be missed at Monte Vista Elementary School, and Nick will be missed at Clark Magnet High School. The district just lost two very good teachers! The tradition continues though, her granddaughter is a 3rd grade teacher.

Chris Ecker ($5) – His dad fell last Friday but thankfully did not break anything! His brother walked in the house giving Chris time to go do the food run that day. He also wears an emergency alert that is hideously LOUD on Chris's phone ... unfortunately there are accidental alerts pressing the button by accident interrupting the little sleep that Chris gets. Hang in there, Chris!

Lynne Thompson ($5) – She followed navigation avoiding freeway traffic on the way to a DAR event in Covina. To her surprise, she enjoyed the 1 ½ hour "tour" of street driving through areas nearby. Of course, after the event it was only a 20-minute return on the freeway.

Brian Hummel ($5) – He is getting all new windows installed at home and has not enjoyed how loud this project is. Even his dog is trying to find a quiet corner to hide in. Hopefully the workers finish today!

Joy Gibson ($1) – A funny gardening joke, he sure thinks of lots to entertain us

Pasadena Humane – start collecting towels, blankets or flat sheets to donate to our guest speaker ... bring to our meeting on July 1st.

Guide Dogs of America – transforms lives through partnerships with service dogs. They breed, raise, and train guide dogs for those who are blind/visually impaired and service dogs for veterans and children with autism. Our highly skilled canines become trusted companions that increase confidence, mobility, and independence.

Do we want to go to a graduation on Sat., Aug. 8th @ 10-12?
