Program/Speaker:* No Speaker.

However, our group was small, and we sat at two tables and chatted, and then Insook Park started to tell her life story, which was fascinating. Escaping from North Korea to the South, and then eventually going to school in the US back East, and then meeting her husband, both moving to CA, and eventually settling in LCF. She has 5 older siblings, whom she visits at least once a year. As the baby of the family, she had some challenges. But now she is so happy to have her two sons relatively nearby and seeing grandchildren too and LOVES our Kiwanis members. We adore you too, Insook.
