H.A.M.S.:

Chris Ecker gave $5 as he is heading to the Sierra's and Mammoth for some hiking and fun in the sun.

Brian Hummel pledged $5 also as yesterday was his wife's birthday and he took the day off and they visited the Reagan Library in Simi Valley, where they too are celebrating the 250th birthday of our country. They went to dinner at Aloha Restaurant in Venture which was reasonably priced and a great dinner and drinks. This coming Sat. they will have the whole family together.

Chuck Hughes gave a very sad $20 for his friend Chuck Terhune (a member of the noon Kiwanis) who lost his wife very suddenly to a heart issue.

Rosemary Hook gave $10 as her daughter took her to lunch and they stopped at Brothers Helpers too.

Joy Gibson actually gave $1 for a true story. He was at Huntington Hospital and got his last vertebrae fixed.

Program Speaker: Our Board Meeting for Budget

We welcomed the board and any members to join us at our board meeting in place of a "program" today, which was approving the Administrative Budget for the coming fiscal year. Treasurer Martha Burns explained a little bit about the spreadsheet, along with Secretary Cindy Bradford, and we all reviewed and discussed if changes were necessary. It was passed unanimously by the Board and now will go to members for any changes and a vote. In another couple of weeks, we will review and vote on the Foundation Budget. Hope all the numbers didn't overwhelm you.
