
Kiwanis Club of Napa Foundation

The Kiwanis Club of Napa Foundation is proud to support a wide range of initiatives each year that align with our mission to assist the youth of our community through giving and direct service. Our primary focus is on local organizations whose programs address critical needs within our community, though we are committed to support impactful initiatives beyond our immediate area.

To ensure that we continue to fund initiatives that align with our values and mission, we invite funding requests through our Kiwanis Club of Napa Foundation Funding Request Form.

Eligibility Requirements:

To apply for Kiwanis funding, you must meet the following criteria:

- Community Service Focus: The project serves the Napa community, and/or
- Youth Service Focus: The project benefits children locally, regionally, or globally (priority will be given to local-serving initiatives).
- Non-Profit Status: Your organization must be a registered 501(c)(3) or other not-for-profit entity.

Application Process:

- Complete the Funding Request Form.
- Submit your application via email to kiwanisclubnapa@gmail.com no later than May 1, 2026
- Applications will be reviewed and ranked by the Kiwanis Club of Napa Grant Committee based on the information provided.
- Applicants will be notified of their funding status by June.

We are honored to support organizations that share our commitment to making a positive impact in the lives of Napa's youth and broader community. If you have any questions about the application process or eligibility requirements, please feel free to contact our Grant Coordinator at kiwanisclubnapa@gmail.com

Thank you for your dedication to serving others.
