SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

KOD

Marlene (Marty) Hallauer was KOD today. She was named after Marlene Dietrich, her middle name of Florence is after her two grandmothers and her last name of Smith was her father's Irish heritage. She married Mr. Don Hallauer some 65 years ago.

She tells the story of "pestering" Don, trying to get his attention and one day he tossed her a nickel saying "When you grow up, give me a call." She was so hurt that she threw the nickel in the lake walking home.

I guess he did decide to call her and they have been together ever since.

Marty & Don have 2 daughters, 4 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

MEETING NOTES

Guests today included Rick Boyd's wife Jolene and Tom Martin's fiancée Miranda.

Wayne Frey reported that book distributions are on track. He and Richard Chesbrough delivered books to one Head Start classroom and one elementary school this morning.

NEXT MEETING

Scheduled KOD is Bill Hansen

Start thinking about WARMER WEATHER and Steam Up - July 29, 30 & 31 & August 5, 6, & 7 and Antique Truck Show on August 20. As many members as possible are needed for this event which raises funds for scholarships & other projects.

Richard Chesbrough was our pinch hit program today. He told us about the trip he and Barbara took to celebrate his 75th birthday with all his kids in the Bahamas for New Years. His youngest son suggested that Richard go scuba diving with him. Richard had taken lessons way back in the 1980's and had not done much scuba diving since then. He went through a "refresher" class in the swimming pool and he and his son went out in 60 feet of ocean. Richard tells of seeing a beautiful Lionfish and seeing his son pointing at something behind him, turning around. Richard was arms length away from a big shark. More sharks were in the area, but no harm was done by shark or human.
