Club Revitalization
& Retention

Bob Munger will speak to our club on the subjects of club revitalization and retention. Bob says: " A Hands-on service highly visible in the community will be the driving force for attracting new members. Public awareness about Kiwanians serving their community will prompt people to look up and ask ' Who are these people, and how can I become a part of that?' "

Club Bylaws are Adopted

Kiwanis®

Don Hallauer started the meeting by asking for the vote on adopting the new bylaws. With only a few token nays, the bylaws were passed by voice vote.

The Secret Greet today was Marty Hallauer. The winner of today's raffle was Phil Richards. Gordon Belson announced that all members except one were in attendance today.

Marty proposed a change in the Board Meeting day and several members voiced opinions. The matter was tabled for board action later. Bob Tribotti announced that our web site has been updated.

Tyler Malstrom

Betsy Belshaw

Salem Parks are plentiful and the Salem Parks Foundation is a vital force in the greater Salem community.

Our guest speakers today were Betsy Belshaw, a member of the Foundation Board of Directors and Tyler Malstrom, Parks commission Chair of his Neighborhood Association.

The Salem Parks Foundation is a dedicated group of volunteers located throughout Salem. While they are not a City of Salem agency, they enjoy a great relationship with the city.

The subject of today's talk was the Crooked House play area at Bush Park. This area was built in the 1980's and made of wood, and wood does not hold up in the Oregon weather. The Foundation plans to rebuild.

Kiwanian of the Day

KOD Bill Van Natta is a past president of the Salem Kiwanis club and a huge Duck fan. It is rare to see Bill wear any other colors except green and yellow. Except when he was still on active duty. Bill asked some thought provoking sports questions and some of the members got some of the answers right.

Bells A Ringing

Our annual Salvation Army bell ringing took place on Dec. 22 at the Salem Center. We even had a little music provided by the West Salem High Jazz Band.
