KOD Don Ferguson

KOD

Today's KOD was Richard Chesbrough. Richard noted that several members of his and wife Barbara's families have been touched by cancer. He talked about the KDCCP program and the work being done to help children with cancer.

PROGRAM

Marilyn Daily-Blair was our guest speaker. She is the Manager of Center 50+, a City of Salem organization offering a variety of over 200 programs, activities, and classes for adults 50 years of age and older. More than 700 people a day enjoy the benefits of the center.

HAPPY

Today we had a guest who is a former long time member and a soon to be renewing member in the person of Bob Repine. Bob is now retired and can spend more than 30 minutes for lunch on a Tuesday or any other day he chooses.

SAD

We are sad to hear the news that Ray McKee will be moving to Boise Idaho in the near future. Steve Sanchez acknowledged Ray for his dedicated service over the years helping with Steam Up, Snack Shack and all the other projects that the clubs have participated in over the years in Salem.
