THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB

Rick Boyd was our featured member today. He told us about an incident at home when a cabinet installed on the wall of his garage came loose and crashed onto his car causing damage to the vehicle. Thankfully, no one was in the garage at the time.

For his fining session, Rick asked questions about Oregon history including where was the first capitol of the state.

Our guest speaker today was Danny Santos. After two decades in service to four Oregon governors including Neil Goldschmidt, Barbara Roberts, John Kitzhaber and Ted Kulongoski, Mr. Santos, a graduate of Willamette University College of Law, returned to the school in June 2011 as Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Administration. He consulted with student organizations and conducted oversight on the offices of Admission, Career and Professional Development, and Student Services.

Mr. Santos is a graduate of Southern Oregon University. He was a senior policy advisor for Gov. Ted Kulongoski and worked on an array of issues including tribal and labor relations, collective bargaining, housing, education and military services. In the first administration of Gov. Kitzhaber he served as legal counsel, education policy coordinator, and worked on juvenile and adult criminal justice issues. Santos was Governor Roberts' legal counsel & chair of the Oregon Board of Parole & Post-Prison Supervision. He also served as Deputy Citizen's Representative and director of the Commission on Agricultural Labor in Gov. Neil Goldschmidt's administration. Mr. Santos earned a bachelor's degree in criminology at SOU in 1975 followed by a juris doctorate from Willamette University College of Law before entering government service.

As I left the meeting today, this song was playing on my car stereo system... very appropriate.
