KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB

Serving the greater Salem Community for over 92 years

President Norman Frink was surprised by four ladies from SKEF, Salem-Keizer Education Foundation. See photo. Krina Lee, SKEF Director talked about how Norman has been an inspiration to many in his tireless efforts to “end book poverty in Oregon.” He has spearheaded the sorting, collection and distribution of books in the Salem & Keizer schools with nearly 17,000 books delivered and more coming every week. With the help of Hugh Nelson, Bill Van Natta and other members, this project brings needed books to young children that they can take home and share with their families. Krina presented the “Norman Frink Literacy Champion Award” to Norm. It will be a permanent community award presented every year by the Salem-Keizer Education Foundation.

The meeting continued with an announcement of guests. We had three guests, Ben Hopper from Boring OR, Chris Allen from Troutdale, and Sue Riehl, who is interested in finding out about Kiwanis. We also had some sad news, Eric Howard had a fall and broke his hip. He is in the hospital and will be having surgery. Please keep him in your thoughts.

Lt. Governor Barbara Chesbrough

Lt.Governor Barbara Chesbrough presented a video on the Eliminate Program and asked members to collect their small change every week and instead of buying that cup of coffee donate that money to this multi-year effort to eliminate maternal and neonatal tetanus throughout the third world countries.
