SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

KOD

Today's KOD was Wayne Frey. Wayne is married to Lois and they have a son, who is 29 years old.

Wayne grew up in Fountain Valley California. He was involved in scouting as a youth and became an Eagle Scout. He has been a Kiwanis member for 10 years. Wayne has a background in computers and project management.

Before coming to Salem he was a member of a Kiwanis club in Ontario Oregon. While there he is proud to have been involved in helping build 2 soccer fields for local youth. Wayne would like to continue to be involved with helping youth enjoy the benefits of sports.

WILLAMETTE HUMANE SOCIETY

Our guest speaker today was BJ Andersen, Executive Director of the Willamette Humane Society. She has been with the organization for the past 12 years. BJ is a Certified Animal Welfare Administrator, a distinction that makes her very special in the field.

She has been in her present position at Willamette Humane for the past 2 1/2 years. When she took over as director, the "live release rate" for dogs & cats in the shelter was only 65%. Today the rate is over 90% which is the industry standard. The shelter has some 500 volunteers on a regular basis. A thrift store in Salem brings in enough funds to support the spay & neuter clinic.
