Kiwanis Family Conference

Macy Mulholland is the future of Kiwanis. She is a very enthusiastic young lady, only 16 years old and has been active in Key Club for three years. She was accompanied today by her father and her grandfather.

Next month she will be the new President of the Silverton High School Key Club. The club presently has 23 members and Macy plans to increase the membership. She stated that one of the biggest problems for Key Clubs in High Schools is getting a Faculty Advisor to volunteer for the position.

For her presentation she discussed her experiences at the Kiwanis Family Conference last November in Black Mountain North Carolina. This event is a combination social and leadership weekend with other young Kiwanians from all over the country. The conference took place at a YMCA camp shown here.

Pinch Hitter Kiwanian of the Day...

Hugh Nelson

Hugh Nelson announced that the scheduled KOD, Jim Fahlstrom, was undergoing tests in the hospital. He had experienced a numbness in his arm this morning. After some 5 hours in the emergency room, nothing conclusive was found. He is scheduled for a stress test next week. He feeling pretty good as of Thursday and is planning to attend the meeting next week. Please keep Jim and Mary in your thoughts.

Speaking of Hugh, our fill-in KOD, he along with Bill Van Natta, Norm Frink, and Bob Tribotti took a drive toward Brooks right after the meeting and delivered over 400 children's books to another Head Start School. The club, under the leadership of Norm and Hugh is delivering hundreds of slightly used children's books to a series of Head Start Programs in the Salem area. See photos on page 2.
