SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

KOD

Bessie Krauth was our Kiwanian of the Day today. Bessie is the sister of President Jim Krauth and has been in Salem for the last 2 years or so. She said she really loves Salem and the beauty of the area. Bessie grew up in Phoenix Arizona.

After graduating from college she worked for IBM for many years in the patents department. She said it was a fun job.

Since retiring she has enjoyed traveling all over Europe including Italy, England, Scotland, Wales and Scandinavia, including Norway, her favorite.

GUEST SPEAKER

John Ritter was our guest speaker today. His fascination with Salem's underground began when, as a youngster, he helped his father in his deconstruction business tearing down buildings in Salem. John would go under the buildings and cut the anchoring bolts. He explored many areas below ground throughout Salem, finding many interesting objects, some of which he shared with us today. Including a beaver trap, an opium scale with its leather case, and one of his prize possessions, a carved opium pipe, shown at right, which he passed around for a hands on and close up look and feel. He also talked about the KKK in Salem and how they made life difficult for the Chinese here.

John Ritter taught school in the State Penitentiary for 35 years. He has also taught history at Linfield College as an adjunct professor. He continues his explorations in Salem and annually conducts underground tours where folks join him in going below the city streets and exploring the colorful history of the capitol city of Salem.

MEETING NOTES

Richard Chesbrough reported that he and his wife Barbara, Bill Hansen and Don Ferguson attended the Woodburn Club's Mayor's Breakfast meeting this morning.

He also reported that he and Barbara attended the KDCCP Board meeting and presented a check from The Salem Kiwanis for $1,550 to KDCCP raised from the Valentine's Day Riverboat Cruise.

Wayne Frey reported that 24,756 books have been delivered to 4,918 kids at 65 schools.
