SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community for over 94 years

GUEST SPEAKER

Our guest speaker today was Patti Whitney-Wise. She is the Executive Director of Partners for a Hunger-Free Oregon. The subject of her presentation was how her agency is working to “End Hunger Before It Begins in Oregon.” One of the sad facts is that Oregon has a major problem with poverty in that the number of folks in poverty is some 658,000, which is more than the entire population of the city of Portland. One in five Oregonians is using the SNAP Program. SNAP is Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. More than half of all students in Oregon are eligible for free or reduced price meals at school.

KIWANIAN OF THE DAY

President Richard Chesbrough was our Kiwanian of the Day. He began the meeting with the following announcement: “We may be down, but we’re not out!” He was referring to the fact that he and Barbara had been informed that the Coast Guard had “put the hammer on us”. They have ruled that since the boat can’t be inspected in dry dock they are not allowed to cruise the river with more than six passengers. The Willamette Queen has been in business for 17 years in Salem. Richard and Barbara will appeal this decision. Stay tuned.
