SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

Next Meeting March 10 - Jerry Russell - Covered Bridges
Featured Member - Don Ferguson

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

Salem Mayor Chuck Bennett was our guest speaker today. The mayor talked about the continuing problem of the homeless. He was our guest speaker back in 2009 before he was mayor, but back then the issue of the homeless was not as bad as it is today. Mr Bennett pointed out that Salem has really grown in the last few years. This year the overriding issue is folks downtown sleeping and doing other things “on the sidewalks.” He stated that this problem won’t be solved anytime soon. He feels that the city is doing well compared with other cities of similar size. A new comprehensive city plan is in the works with transportation issues looming large. He noted the $17 million investment in downtown with new developments. The new Salem Police facility will open soon. A new business plan for the Salem Airport is in the works. The city is growing and doing well.

Our Featured Member today was. Mary Fahlstrom. Mary noted that she is from a family of 5 children, 4 brothers and herself, no sisters for Mary. For her fining session she asked sports trivia questions including “what number is between 5 and 9 on a British dart board?”
