SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

Brian Hines

Brian Hines of the NO on Measure 24-420 was our speaker. Retired, he first worked as a Research Associate in the Department of Family Practice at OHSU in Portland. He then became an executive service manager with the State Health Planning and Development Agency in Salem and then contracted with Oregon Health Decisions as a publicist and then as the executive director engaged in education and action on bioethical issues.

He has a degree in Psychology from San Jose State, a Masters of Social Work from Portland State University and completed the coursework for a Ph.D. in Systems Science at Portland State while working at OHSU.

He shared with us his four reasons for a No Vote on the Police Facility Bond measure on the May ballot.

1. Cost is still too high. Excluding land the development cost is pegged at $490 per square foot. Beaverton's facility is coming in at $389 per square foot.

2. Earthquake preparedness still is being ignored for City Hall and the Library.

3. While Salem has a need for a new facility for police, the cost will make it difficult to work on other issues: affordable housing, better parks, downtown vitalization.

4. Lack of public involvement. After the defeat at the ballot in November there was no effort made to include those who were concerned about the high cost and the lack of earthquake preparedness in the first ballot in discussions about the second attempt.

We will have the Yes campaign later in April.
