SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

GUEST SPEAKER

Mark McIntire is President of Flourishing Beyond Borders. The subject of his talk was... "What's wrong with these people?"... talking about how in our diverse population, including here in Salem, people want to be with "like minded" people. But as our populations become more "different" we need to establish strategies to be accepting of other cultures and life styles.

He stressed being accepting, curious, and welcoming to our changing cultural climate.

KOD

Hugh Nelson (above) was our KOD today. He first joined Kiwanis in Prineville in 1955. He had graduated from Willamette University in 1954. After his first job with the Marion County Juvenile Court, he accepted a job in Prineville, where he worked for three years, which he describes as the worst three years and the best three years for personal growth. He was only 23 when he started there.

When he moved on from Prineville, to Portland he spent ten years there with the National Guard. Then came Salem, still with the Guard, where he retired in 1991. He joined the Salem Kiwanis in 1972 and has been a member since then.

After retirement he worked with the Air National Guard full time and then part time.

Hugh has three sons, five stepchildren, one grandchild and one great grandchild.

PROGRAM MARCH 29

The Claggett Middle School Peer Helper Leadership Program was the program on March 29. The students shared information on how 8th grade students help 6th grade students get familiar with middle school.

They also talked about the "Big Brother Big Sister" program in which the 8th graders team up with a 6th graders for the entire year.

Steve Sanchez has been involved in this program for 15 years.
