KOD

Today's KOD was Bessie Krauth. Bessie is Jim Krauth's sister. Bessie reported on her recent week long visit with her nephew and his family in Tennessee.

Bessie said that she had never been to Tennessee. She described the state as "gorgeous" with lots of beautiful trees, similar to Oregon.

In her fining session we learned that Mortimer Mouse was Mickey Mouse's original name.

MEETING NOTES

We had no guests at today's meeting other than our two guest speakers.

Tree Sales have been extended for one more weekend - April 22-23. A sign up sheet was sent around and all time slots were filled. In photo at right, Hugh Nelson finishes his tree sales shift on Saturday April 15.

See page 2 for info on Div. 70 DCM registrations.

New Salem Police Center Project Evolution:

The City Council has been working to address the possibility of a new headquarters for the Salem Police Department since 2007. Last November, voters rejected a plan to build a 148,000 square-foot police facility. In recent polling, those residents cited the $82.1 million cost as a major negative factor.

On February 6, 2017, Council held a work session and accepted public comment to consider whether to refer a proposal for a new public safety facility to the voters again at the May 16, 2017 election.

Possible Areas for Reduction

- Cost reduced by 25%
- No WVCC 911 call center

- Space for future growth and officers parking spaces

On February 21, 2017, Council held a work session and accepted public comment to consider whether to refer a proposal for a new public safety facility and seismic and structural improvements to the Library to Salem voters.

Council adopted a motion to call for a May 16, 2017 election for a $61.8 million bond measure to finance a public safety facility. They also adopted a motion to call for an election on the November 7, 2017 ballot for $15.3 million bond measure to finance seismic and building safety improvements for the City Library.
