SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community for over 94 years

TEXTILE COLLECTION DATE IS NOW SATURDAY APRIL 25 - NOON

KOD Sunny Goldman was our Kiwanian of the Day. When she moved to Salem from Southern California she joined The Arc of Oregon an organization that helps people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Her second son was born with Down Syndrome; he is now 58 years old. Sunny was president of the organization and then continued on the board. She was introduced to Kiwanis by Barbara & Richard Chesbrough. Sunny was president of the West Salem club.

Sunny was very active in the entertainment industry in Southern California and did commercials on TV for a number of years.

MEETING NOTES

We had a guest at the meeting today. President Richard Chesbrough introduced his sister, Cheryl Guth, who is visiting. She was subjected to the usually off tune "Welcome Guest" serenade by the membership. We were also joined by honorary member Dennis Bierman today.

Richard also announced that Wayne Frey has officially joined the club.

Richard talked a little about the continuing saga of the riverboat inspection and required repairs that will continue for the next several weeks.

Our guest speaker today was Sam Carroll, CEO Family YMCA of Marion & Polk Counties. He has been in that position since December 1st of last year. He comes to Salem from Tulsa Oklahoma where he was the CEO of the YMCA there.

Mr. Carroll talked about the changes that the "Y" is going through here in Salem. It's not just a "a Gym and a Swim" anymore. The YMCA offers programs for youth and adults including health programs for an aging population. The challenges include the issues of values & health education.
