SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

Our featured member today was Wayne Frey wearing his “I do have a retirement plan” T shirt. Wayne is going to keep on cycling, nearly 2,000 miles so far this year.

For his trivia questions, Wayne asked about Disney & Disneyland’s early days way back in the mid 1950’s when the icon of amusement parks opened its gates. In those days you could choose your rides by the letter and not have to spend a C note to get in the gate.

Our guest speaker today was Russ Strohmeier, President of the Willamette Valley Street Rod club. Russ has been president of the local car club for eight years. Since 1979, Russ has owned and operated Stro's Photography. In addition to traditional and contemporary indoor portraits, Stro's has a one of a kind “Private Portrait Park”.

Russ noted that there are some 10 car clubs in Salem. He is “on the radio” on KBZY every Friday with info on car shows in Washington & Oregon. Most clubs raise money for charities.

Russ has established a 501c3 in memory of his and his wife Margie’s son Brent who died at the age of 20 as a passenger in an auto accident on September 6, 2001. The Brent Strohmeier Memorial Scholarship awards funds to youth who care about and cherish classic cars.

Willamette Valley Street Rod club is a family oriented automotive club based in Salem Oregon where they host the annual Carousel Cruise at Riverfront Park. Their mission is to promote an interest in automobiles, sustain the history of street rodding, and advance a positive image of the hobby through club activities, socialization, and charitable contributions to the community.
