CONSUMER HOTLINE

Our guest speaker today was Ellen Klem, with the Consumer Fraud Division of the Oregon Department of Justice.

She presented a program on how the agency is fighting fraud and protecting Oregonians. She handed out flyers on the Six Signs of a Scam and Phone Imposter Scams -Just Hang Up.

1. Scammers Contact You “Out Of The Blue” It could be a knock on the door, a phone call, or a piece of mail you weren’t expecting. For example, you didn’t think you owed the IRS or a debt collection agency money, but they called claiming you could be in trouble if you don’t pay.

2. Scammers Claim There Is An “Emergency” A scam might warn that if you don’t respond immediately your prize winnings will be lost, or that a relative or friend is in trouble in a foreign country. If something prompts immediate action, be cautious.

3. Scammers Ask For Your Personal Information Scammers often pose as banks, health care providers and government officials asking for identifying personal or financial information. Any time someone asks you for this information, be suspicious!

4. Scammers Want You To Wire Money You may be asked to wire money or purchase pre-paid debit cards. This is the easiest way for scam artists to get their hands on your money, and it’s almost impossible to get it back once it has been sent. Don’t do it!

5. Scammers Tell You To Keep It “Secret” By asking you to keep a transaction secret, scammers know you won’t have to respond to questions from family and friends who might see through the scam. Check with someone you trust before acting.

6. Scammers Make It Sound Too Good To Be True If it seems too good to be true, it probably is! Above all, use this simple mantra to help you detect and avoid scams. It’s always better to be cautious than to be a victim.

KOD

Today’s KOD was Bob Repine. Bob came to Grants Pass Oregon from California in 1973. He has a degree in Aerospace Engineering and had a successful career as a building contractor building single family houses and commercial developments. In 1988 Bob was elected to the Oregon legislature and served as an Oregon Representative for 10 years. He then went to work for the state in several agencies and retired earlier this year.

MEETING NOTES

We had 2 guests from Lincoln City today and we were happy to see Shirley Clemons who said “I’ll be back!” Richard Chesbrough reported on very successful Mustang raffle ticket sales at Walmart, $1729.
