New Orleans

Personal reflections on my trip to the city and the city's present state of recovery from Katrina.

John Moody

KOD Van Khieu was our Kiwanian Of the Day and our Program too. For his fining session, Van asked questions on Oregon trivia. One question was what is the official state fish? It is the Oncorhynchus tshawytscha also known as the Chinook Salmon. Yummy!

Van was born in Cambodia in 1968. His parents left the country in 1975. They first settled in the small town of Fillmore Utah. His parents worked at a mushroom processing plant. In 1978, the family moved to Salem. Van was then 10 years old. He is the oldest of 5 children with 2 brothers and 2 sisters. His parents instilled in their children the values of hard work and learning English. When Van was left in charge of his siblings because his parents were working, Van was the cook for the family. Today he still enjoys cooking and experimenting with culinary arts. Van and his wife Lydia have 2 daughters. Lydia has a large family and they all enjoy big family get togethers. In addition to cooking, Van enjoys a number of sports including rock climbing, even though he is afraid of heights. He is also an avid golfer and plans to play every golf course in Oregon.

Van is a data analyst in the county assessors office. His recent run for the elected position of County Assessor was a positive experience even though he did not win. "Politics is not my thing" he says but he met a lot of people he would not have met and that was a very positive thing.

Meeting Notes...

Bill Van Natta was the secret greeter but he did not collect any fines since everyone shook his hand. Greg Barrick was the lucky raffle winner today.

Jim Fahlstrom passed around the sign up sheet for the Mustang Raffle Ticket sales at the Oregon State Fair on Saturday, August 24.

Bill Stortz had a happy $5 for his & his wife Lee's 67th wedding anniversary.
