SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

August 20: Featured Member - Rick Boyd
Program - To Be Announced

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

Our featured member today was Greg Barrick. As you can see in the photos, the only thing different in the photo of Greg today is the color of his hair, right Greg?

Not sure of the number of years between the photos but his kids no longer climb all over him as much today.

Greg has been a Salem Kiwanis member for forty one years!

Our guest speaker today was Steve Bellshaw, Deputy Police Chief of Salem. Last week, Salem city leaders, police personnel and construction workers celebrated a milestone for the new Salem Police Station called the "topping out" ceremony, marking completion of the concrete and steel structure of the building. In September the roof and windows will complete the exterior and the building will be waterproof. This building is designed to be in service for 30 to 50 years according to Deputy Chief Bellshaw.

The new three story facility will have its own crime lab where today evidence is sent away and takes six to eight months to get analyzed. The new building will include an 1800 sq. ft. Community Room and the lobby will have private rooms for interviewing purposes. Traffic patterns around the police station will change for the better and parking space will be abundant.
