We had two guest speakers today from the Marion County Community Services Department. Tamra Goettsch and Arturo Vargas. Both are involved with children and families in our local area. Tamra talked about the various changes that are taking place in community services in Marion County. Arturo is the Reading for All Coordinator and has worked with both Norm Frink and Hugh Nelson on the program for several years. Reading for All promotes awareness in the community of the importance of family reading, parents reading to and reading with their children. Arturo stressed the importance of reading and literacy in the community.

Reading for All's short term goals are to increase family participation in literacy activities, increase community engagement in activities that support literacy as a key to lifelong success and to leverage Marion County funding with community resources of time and money to sustain the capacity and the literacy initiative in the county.

KOD Peggy Klein was our Kiwanian Of the Day today. Peggy is a past president of the club and is retired and enjoying her travels with her husband Terry. They are planning on a trip to Europe to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary which is on September 8th. Peggy asked questions mostly on Paris.

Meeting Notes...

Norman Frink was our Secret Greeter today and he collected some dollars. We had one guest today, Anabelle Richards.

We sang Happy Birthday to Eric Howard, his birthday is August 26.
