SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

Julie Harris

Key Club Advisors Julie Harris & Koleka Gosney, who also goes by Amy, were our guest speakers today. Julie brought her daughter Gabrielle with her and “Gabby” said she was looking forward to school starting.

This was the first year for Key Club at Sprague so there was a lot of learning experiences happening. Julie noted that one of the biggest issues was transportation of students to various Key Club events away from school such as the District Convention. There are issues of safety and legal liability.

One of the successful projects this year was the “one thousands soles” used shoe donation project. Another was the key clubbers making Hawaiian Leis.

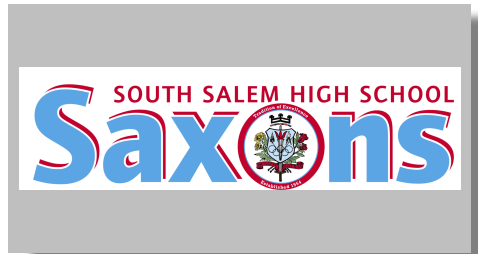

At South High, this was Koleka’s 4th year as Advisor. She is proud of the leadership from the seniors. The club is planning on improving the Key Club web site and also getting involved in more projects to aid Doernbecher Children’s Hospital.

Club membership this past year started out at about 50 but at years end they were down to around 25 or so.

The club is planning on having a table with Key Club information at the annual Freshman’s Day event in September.
