SOUTH Salem SENIORS

Our featured member today was Richard Chesbrough. Richard noted that both his father and grandfather did not get to enjoy their retirement due to health issues so he decided to go on a world cruise in his mid forties. And as Captain of the Willamette Queen he still enjoys cruising today.

Our guest speaker today was Camille Lockling. She is the president of the South Salem Seniors.

The Center is open to seniors over 50 years of age and provides a nice variety of services and club activities.

They have their own building in South Salem which they also offer to other organizations. With the help of volunteers, the center is a gathering place and offers various club activities including:

- Art Group
- China Painting
- Life Story
- Scrapbooking
- Gardening Club
- Monday Afternoon Crafters
- Charity House
- Pool Players

They offer a monthly pancake breakfast with a choice of Pancakes or Homemade Biscuits and Gravy, with eggs, sausage or ham, orange juice, coffee/tea for just $5!

For folks that want to take a trip they offer a travel coordinator who will book groups for Group Active, Oregon West and Collette Trips through the Center's Travel Office and the center receives a commission which helps support the Center's services to seniors in South Salem.

Richard announced that Mustang Raffle sales are doing very well. Our Salem club will sell tickets at the fair this Thursday.
