Jim Fahlstrom

Richard Chesbrough

Wayne Frey

Our meeting today was a combination of brief reports on recent projects and discussions on future projects with a healthy dose of laughter thrown in. KOD Jim Fahlstrom talked a bit about one of the byproducts of the paper making industry when he worked at Boise Cascade here in Salem - the product being edible Torula yeast which grows on wood alcohols. When deactivated and dried, it looks like a tan powder and can be packaged and sold in health and nutrition stores. Among other products, it was used to enhance the flavors of Doritos. Richard Chesbrough announced the raffle ticket sales for the first four days of the State fair were $6700.00. He passed out free passes to those working the Mustang booth on Thursday.

Wayne Frey reported on the Peach of the Century Bike Ride event and thanked members who helped out with food & drink for the riders. Marcia Kelley led a group discussion on the club's projects for the coming year. Bob Repine announced upcoming programs for the next three months.

Bill Hansen, left, does Mustang Raffle sales at the booth on Thursday. Del Funk sells tickets at the other table in the booth at the State Fair.
