SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

President Jim Krauth led the “Committees meeting” today. We were happy to see long time member John Fox at the meeting and also happy to see Marty and Don Hallauer back after a number of weeks away. Bruce Thomas joined us and invited members to attend the Installation dinner where he will be installed as Lt. Governor and Charlie Williams will be thanked and deinstalled as Lt. Governor (2 terms).

Richard Chesbrough announced that Mustang raffle ticket sales are doing well, ahead of last year, and we will staff the Kiwanis booth at the State Fair on Wednesday.

Steve Sanchez reported that gross sales from the SteamUp and Truck Show were above last year with a preliminary figure of $18,319. Very good indeed. Steve did express concerns about a lack of member participation in some fundraising projects with only a few members doing a majority of the work.

Jim Krauth raised the question of “are we willing to continue with all the various projects but are we not having a good time doing the work and not having any fun”. Bob Tribotti expressed a feeling of a lack of social and fun activities in the club.

Marcia Kelley reminded us of the positive aspects of our work with bringing books to school children at Bush school and Norm Frink reinforced this with the fact that the kids really need and enjoy the books, especially the multilingual books. Wayne Frey made a suggestion of purchasing soccer balls for a number of kids and thereby impacting a greater number of children.

Bob Tribotti asked members to consider submitting an article and or photos for the weekly newsletter.

Rick Boyd reminded members that the Eliminate project continues. Steve Sanchez noted that Key Club will be starting up again in September and asked members to consider attending some of their meetings which are usually very short and our attendance is very much appreciated by the Key Clubbers. Wayne Frey noted he needs more help with the book sorting and Marty Hallauer suggested setting up a regular schedule of “work groups” to do the sorting. Ray McKee reminded members to attend board meetings to bring up some of these issues.

Installation of Lt. Governor Bruce Thomas on the Willamette Queen Sept. 14, 6:30pm

KOD

Bessie Krauth was our KOD today. Bessie is president Jim Krauth's sister. She was born in Illinois, lived in California and now lives here in Salem. She worked for IBM for many years and she told us about an IBM engineer from Germany who rented an apartment in the same building as she. Bessie talked about a road trip with the engineer and his wife where they started in San Jose and visited San Juan Capistrano and on to Tucson AZ where Jim and his wife lived. She was invited to come to Germany and she took classes to learn the language and did enjoy her visit to Germany.
