KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB

Serving the greater Salem Community for over 92 years

Don Hallauer was at the helm today for his last meeting as president of the club.

KOD Bill Stortz was our Kiwanian Of the Day today. Bill and his wife Lee have been married for 62 years. Bill or Billy as his mother called him, is a native Oregonian and is the old-timer of our club. He wasn't at the installation of our club 92 years ago but has been a Kiwanian since 1951. Bill talked about his early years with the Salem Kiwanis Club.

Meeting Notes...

Bob Repine was our Secret Greeter today and he collected a couple fines which were put into the Eliminate can. The lucky winner of the raffle prize was Bill Hansen.

Today's meeting was the last officiated by president Don Hallauer. Marty Hallauer announced that we will continue with our collection of pull tabs, used glasses, and egg cartons in the coming year. She also announced some of the yummy goodies that will be in the auction at the installation dinner. The dinner location has not been confirmed as of today.

Our guest speaker today was Capi Lynn. She is familiar to anyone who reads the Statesman Journal. A veteran of 25 years with the paper, she started at the Statesman right out of college in 1988. She was a sports reporter at a time when not too many female reporters were on the sports desk. For the last seven years she has been a feature writer. Her column is called Forward This. Ms Lynn writes about the many interesting people in our local community. Her columns run Wednesday and Sunday. She has a lot of freedom to write what she wants and has a never ending list of ideas.

She also talked about the many changes in the newspaper. The downtown offices at one time housed 500 employees and now the number is 120. There are only four others who have been there 25 years. There is hope that a new building will still be located in downtown Salem.
