SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community since 1921

KOD John Moody was our Kiwanian 'O the Day today. John hails from Beautiful Downtown Burbank, CA also known as "Media Capitol of the World"

John talked about his mother's love of home town Burbank and how she would get upset when the TV show Laugh In would make fun of Burbank.

GUEST SPEAKER

Leah Schluter was our guest speaker today. She informed us about ballot measure 98.

If passed, 98 would address a problem with high school students not getting vocational training or being prepared to succeed in college. Another problem is the high drop out rate. This measure would allocate $150 million to address these issues without adding additional property taxes to go toward school funding and programs.

BOOKS FOR THE LITTLE ONES

Wayne Frey reported 1,630 books were delivered to a couple Head Start programs today. October will see 10 delivery dates. Wayne can use some help with deliveries. (photos by Wayne Frey)

KEY CLUB IS OFF TO A GREAT START

The fourth Key Club meeting was attended by four Kiwanis members today. The Key Club has ambitious plans for projects this school year. One project is to restart the compost program at South High.
