KOD

Bill Hansen was the Kiwanian of the Day, he was recently awarded Kiwanian of the Year by our club. Bill talked about a traffic accident in 1960 that involved an employee of his parents company. The accident involved a school bus and a driver who ignored the stop sign on the bus. Bill Stortz represented Bill's parents and got a positive result for them.

Guest speaker Alicia Bay, Executive Director of Gilbert House

A new exhibit will open on November 3 at the Gilbert House Children's Museum. It is called Salem Station.

The Museum's mission is to "inspire children to learn through creative play." This is accomplished through 15-hands on exhibits, Outdoor Discovery Area, camps, birthday parties, field trips, membership opportunities and educational programs in the sciences, arts, and humanities. Three historic houses and outside play areas make up the complex that so many children have enjoyed over the last nearly 20 years.

The following is from Wikipedia...
Gilbert House is a museum in Gilbert's birthplace of Salem, Oregon, A. C. Gilbert's Discovery Village, is named in his honor. The museum comprises several historic structures, including the house of Gilbert's uncle Andrew T. Gilbert. It opened in 1989.

A biography titled The Man Who Changed How Boys and Toys Were Made was published in 2002.
