Kevin Hohnbaum is Director of Development at the Salem-Keizer Education Foundation. He has been in that position for about one year. Their signature event every year for the past 30 years is the Awesome 3000 where nearly 600 community volunteers put together an experience for over 3000 runners who are cheered on as they head to the finish line.

Another annual event is the Salem-Keizer School District spelling contest, sponsored in part by the Salem Kiwanis Club. Club volunteers check spelling and award cash prizes to the winners.

Other foundation activities include: The Lego Robotics competition, The School Supply Drive & Depot for teachers and counselors, The Crystal Apple Awards in conjunction with the school district and the Salem & Keizer Chambers of Commerce.

Grants for teachers is another important activity of the foundation which provides much needed funds to allow teachers and educators to promote innovation and creative projects and programs that make a difference and encourage teachers to pursue excellence in their work.

KOD Greg Barrick, is a native Oregonian and a graduate of Linfield College. He has the distinction of having been in every position in the club from his current position of Treasurer to Secretary, Board Member, Vice President, President-Elect and President in his 35 years as a member of this club. He is very happily married to his wife Llynore and they have 2 children, a son & daughter.

Meeting Notes...

Hugh Nelson was our Secret Greeter today and he was greeted by all with a handshake so therefore no dollars or coins were collected. We are all getting very good at greeting one another. Aren't we. The lucky winner of the raffle prize was Bob Tribotti after KOD Greg Barrick's ticket was drawn first.
