SALEM KIWANIS KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community for over 94 years

SALEM FREE CLINIC

Our guest speaker today was John McConville, Director of the Salem Free Clinic. He started with the clinic as a volunteer some three years ago. He became Executive Director January 2015.

The clinic started in 2005 with one doctor, one nurse, and one volunteer.

In 2008 the clinic moved into the Broadway Commons building. They now have volunteers from over 70 churches. They provide free medical, dental, mental health and counseling services.

Salem Free Clinic is a safety net for people who do not have medical insurance. They have some 5500 patients visits per year. The Affordable Care Act has made a big difference. The clinic went from being overwhelmed to now being able to help most folks with same day services.

The goal of the clinic is to provide services so people do not have to go to the emergency room.

KOD

Jim Fahlstrom started in the paper industry when he was 16 years old. He came to Salem from Long View Washington in 1955 and worked for Boise Cascade until 1983. The mill was shut in 1982 but Jim still worked until 1983. The paper converting facilities went on until 1995. Jim passed around a couple photos from the period. The photo below was from the Statesman Journal.

This is a 1972 photograph of the Boise Cascade paper Mill in Salem, Oregon. It appears to have been taken either early morning or evening as the steam from the mill is very evident in the photograph. In the background the Oregon State Capitol building and the Pioneer statue are visible. Photographer unknown.
