KLIPPINGS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE SALEM KIWANIS CLUB
Serving the greater Salem Community for over 90 years

Kiwanian of the Day

KOD Peggy Klein has been a club member for 15 years. She was persuaded to join the club by Eric Howard who told her "you just go to lunch and you don't have to do anything." But do things she has...she is a past president of the club in 2004-2005 and some years ago Peggy brought a fundraiser to the club which sold little stuffed "easter eggs", which were purchased for $2 and sold for $5.

And these days she continues to head up a major fundraiser with the sale of holiday poinsettias.

Peggy is a proud Hixson honoree. She is also on the Program Committee and has been responsible for bringing many interesting speakers to the club including today's speaker.

Please bring cookies next Tuesday for serving at the Union Mission.

The Secret Greeter today was Bob Tribotti and the raffle winner for the second week in a row was Eric Howard with #140.

We did have one visitor today, Van Khieu brought his wife Lydia. And she was treated to the unique experience of having our group sing "Welcome Guest" to her.

Peggy Klein reported on poinsettia sales; members sold almost 350 plants.

A sign-up sheet was passed around for our annual Salvation Army holiday bell ringing on Saturday December 22.

Our food server Amy will be on maternity leave after next weeks' meeting.

A GANNETT COMPANY

Our guest speaker today was Statesman Journal Arts Reporter Barbara Curtin. She has been a journalist ever since writing her first story in high school; she was paid a whopping $5. And she is still excited to see her byline in the paper today.

Curtin has been a reporter at the Statesman Journal for 15 years with nine of those years on the opinion page. She also wrote for the Capital Journal before it merged with the Oregon Statesman to become the Statesman Journal in 1980.

In 2009 she took over the arts beat at the Statesman Journal. She enjoys covering the arts scene in Salem including live theater, film, music & books.

She told us how she remembers when she was 11 years old her father took her to a live performance of The Music Man starring Robert Preston on Broadway. Ever since then, she has been interested in the arts and when she was in high school she started playing the french horn which she still plays today with the Willamette Valley Concert Band.

When she found out that Hal Holbrook was coming to Salem to perform his famous one man show "Mark Twain Tonight" at the Elsinore Theater, she contacted his manager and arranged to interview Mr. Holbrook by phone. She had a feature article in the paper which helped to sell out the house for the performance on Friday, November 2.

Another recent feature article by Curtin was on the The Gaiety Hill/Bush's Pasture Park Historic District, a unique neighborhood which includes some historic homes bordering the beautiful Bush Park on High Street in Salem.
