KOD

Barbara Chesbrough was our KOD today along with her husband Richard. Barbara gave us some info on things to think about as the new year approaches. Things like being prepared when a disaster happens. We keep hearing about the fact that we here in Oregon are overdue for a major earthquake and when that happens we will be dealing with major issues.

Richard showed some items we should have on hand including water purification and tools to shut gas lines.

Kimberly Fitzgerald

Our guest speakers today were Kimberly Fitzgerald and Kirsten Straus. Both are with the city of Salem Historic Preservation Commission. The goal is to preserve landmarks that are significant to the history of Salem.

The city of Salem was founded in 1842 along the Willamette River at the former site of a Calapooya Indian village. That very early site was "rediscovered" by a Methodist missionary group led by Jason Lee.

Kirsten Straus

The development of the new Police facility led to "inadvertent" discovery of some 17,000 artifacts from Salem's early days as a trading area for native peoples.

Along with arrowheads and tools, items recovered included early European ceramics from the 1800's when Salem was the center of commerce in the area.

An exhibit of some of these items will be open to the public Dec. 14-30, 2018 at the Willamette Heritage Center.

Salem Kiwanis Club helped Salem-Keizer Education Foundation with a 2-day Legos Robotics Tournament.

Both days, Saturday and Sunday had 15 teams competing.
4 - 9 kids per team

There was about 120 middle school age kids each day.
