When Irish Eyes Are Smiling by Chauncey Olcott

When Irish eyes are smiling
 Sure, 'tis like the morn in Spring
 In the lilt of Irish laughter
 You can hear the angels sing
 When Irish hearts are happy
 All the world seems bright and gay
 And when Irish eyes are smiling
 Sure, they steal your heart away.

"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" is a lighthearted song in tribute to Ireland, written for Olcott's production of The Isle O' Dreams, and Olcott sang the song in the show. It was first published in 1912, at a time when songs in tribute to a romanticised Ireland were very numerous and popular both in Britain and the United States. During the First World War the famous tenor John McCormack recorded the song. The song continued to be a familiar standard for generations. Decades later it was used as the opening song on the radio show Duffy's Tavern. The song has been recorded on over 200 singles and albums and by many famous singers, including Bing Crosby, Connie Francis, and Roger Whittaker.
