I'm Singin' In The Rain

Words & Music by Arthur Freed & Nacio Herb Brown (1952)

I'm singin' in the rain, just singin' in the rain
What a glorious feelin', I'm happy again
I'm laughin' at clouds so dark up above
The sun's in my heart and I'm ready for love
Let the stormy clouds chase everyone from the place
Come on with the rain, I've a smile on my face
I walk down the lane with a happy refrain
Just singin', singin' in the rain

KIWANIS NOTES

Tax Day is one of those rare occasions where everyone appreciates a clean joke!

Why did the accountant break up with the calculator?
Because they just couldn't count on each other anymore.

I told my taxes a joke... But they didn't return it.

Why don't taxes ever get invited to parties? Because they always take too much of a cut.

I tried to organize a Tax Day party... but nobody wanted to claim it.

Why was the math book sad on Tax Day? It had too many problems—and the IRS wanted answers to all of them.

What's the difference between death and taxes?
Congress doesn't meet every year to make death worse.

Why did the taxpayer cross the road?
To avoid a write-off on the other side.

I asked my wallet how it felt about Tax Day...
It said, "I'm experiencing a significant withdrawal."
