Kiwanis Notes to Self

"Summer is the annual permission slip to be lazy. To do nothing and have it count for something. To lie in the grass and count the stars. To sit on a branch and study the clouds." —Regina Brett

When You're Smilin'

This popular song was written by Larry Shay, Mark Fisher and Joe Goodwin. First published in 1928

When you're smilin', when you're smilin'
The whole world smiles with you
When you're laughin', when you're laughin'
The sun comes shinin' through
But when you're cryin', you bring on the rain
So stop that cryin', be happy again
Keep on smilin', 'cause when you're smilin'
The whole world smiles with you

"WHAT IF? SEVEN WAYS KIWANIS CHANGES LIVES"

What if you could reach children wherever they are?

Kiwanis members meet children where they are—in schools, hospitals, neighborhoods, and communities worldwide—providing compassion, encouragement, and meaningful service that helps young people thrive.

What if you could help when it's needed most?

When disasters and hardships strike, Kiwanis responds with food, shelter, supplies, and hope, standing beside families during their greatest times of need.

What if you could give children a safe place to play and learn?

Kiwanis creates safe, welcoming places where children can learn, play, and grow by building playgrounds, supporting schools, and enhancing educational opportunities.

What if you could help today's teens become tomorrow's leaders?

Through Key Club, Builders Club, K-Kids, and Circle K, Kiwanis develops confident young leaders who learn to serve others while making lasting community impact.

What if you could help people help themselves?

Kiwanis empowers people through practical skills, partnerships, and opportunities that build independence, strengthen communities, and create lasting hope beyond immediate assistance.

What if you could offer tools for healthier living?

From clean water and nutrition to health education and hygiene, Kiwanis promotes healthier lives by providing resources that improve children's long-term well-being.

What if you could give children the tools to become lifelong readers?

Kiwanis inspires a love of reading by donating books, supporting literacy programs, and ensuring children have access to educational resources that open doors to brighter futures.
