Big Hearts Helping Little Ones

Our program on September 11th was presented by Diane Shawcross, Development Director of the Florence Fuller Child Development Centers (FFDCDC). Their Mission: Making a difference through education for economically challenged children and families to build a positive future in our community. FFDCDC is a registered 501(c)3 non-profit and is a Gold Seal childcare center. For the school age child, they offer afterschool and school holiday programs as well as summer camps. Comprehensive support services for children from 6 weeks to 5 years include a food program providing two-thirds of the children's nutritional needs, medical screenings and a clinic where mildly ill children are cared for by a Licensed Practical nurse, alleviating the need for parents to miss work. FFDCDC has five-star ratings from the Palm Beach County Quality Improvement Rating System. In the past 10 years, 99.98% of former Head Start graduates have not repeated a grade in elementary school. Each day 70% of a child's nutritional needs are provided. They have two campuses in Boca Raton serving 625 students and the average tenure of their staff is 10 years. FFDCDC needs volunteers to keep up the good work. For more information go to www.ffcdc.org.

Lots To Do At The Boca Children's Museum

Our speaker on September 4th was Jane Morrison, the Operations Coordinator for the Boca Raton Children's Museum. The Children's Museum is a campus made up of several historic buildings. Part of their mission is to preserve these buildings -- some of the oldest in Boca Raton -- for posterity, while making them useful and educational for children. The most important thing in their entire museum and its programs is the imagination of your child. Every exhibit and program is developed to engage the child (and the young-at-heart) in an interactive, free-play, imagination-centered way. Bring your children and grandchildren and spend an hour or two just bonding and engaging in play that facilitates social, emotional and cognitive growth. Programs at the Children's Museum include The Traveling Museum; FACES, Multicultural Reading Program and Archaeo Project. Thirteen of the educational programs are aligned with Florida Sunshine State Standards and have been approved by Palm Beach County Schools for delivery in the classroom or as a field trip supplement. ## AACY Helps Children Who Are Caregivers

That was the message from Connie Siskowski, Founder & President of the American Association of Caregiving Youth (AACY) at our September 18th meeting. Today AACY is the only organization of its kind in the United States for addressing the issues surrounding the silent, vulnerable and hidden population, conservatively estimated to exceed 1.4 million children, who provide care for family members who are unable to manage life independently.

AACY addresses the needs of pre-teens, teens, families, and professionals through education and awareness, research, and direct services. At AACY, they build a bridge between the systems of healthcare, education and community to help these children in school, out of school, and at home so they can have the skills and support they need, as well as a space to socialize with peers and succeed in life.

AACY's model program, the Caregiving Youth Project (CYP), works in partnership with the School District of Palm Beach County and currently serves more than 500 caregiving youth and their families in 8 area middle schools and 17 high schools.

Every caregiver has a story. When we look at the stories of those who have been caregivers, we see common threads. Nobody asked for the job, and there were a lot of times when the job seemed impossible. Rest assured, being a caregiver is not easy, but...read the first-person accounts on their website and learn some of the secrets, pains and joys of being a caregiver. Go to www.aacy.org for more information and the opportunity to volunteer or make a donation.

Looking For Matching Funds From The State

Member Alberta Gaum-Rickard and Delray Super-intendant of Ocean Rescue, James Scala made presentations about the State grants they are seeking for the city at our September 11th meeting. As Recreation Superintendent of The Delray Beach Parks & Recreation Department, Alberta made a presentation for a State Grant she is trying to get to make improvements for Delray's Veteran's Park, located just off East Atlantic Ave., along the intracoastal waterway. Included in the plan is to replace the play ground equipment. Veteran's Park is a great place to relax and have a snack while watching the boats pass by.

James made a presentation for improvements they are seeking for the swimming pool at Pompey Park.

Your Aging Resource Center is Here To Help Seniors/Caregivers

Samantha Howell

Our program on September 25th was presented by Samantha Howell, the Shine Project Director for the Area Agency on Aging, Your Aging Resource Center. They are a dynamic, private, nonprofit organization dedicated to serving seniors and their caregivers. Your Aging Resource Center/Area Agency on Aging of Palm Beach/Treasure Coast, Inc. is the leader of the Aging Network in Planning and Service Area 9 which includes Indian River, Martin, Okeechobee, Palm Beach and St. Lucie counties.

Your Aging Resource Center is here to help seniors and their caregivers find solutions to the many questions and challenges of growing older. Services are available to the entire community regardless of ability to pay. Very often, all it takes is just a little bit of help. Your Aging Resource Center provides a Circle of Care for seniors in need. A little help might come in the form of a hot home-delivered meal, help with a bath, transportation or companionship. Our typical senior is an 82 year old woman living alone and hoping to be able to stay at home. They are here to celebrate her hope and make that possible.

SHINE stands for Serving the Health Insurance Needs of Elders. SHINE provides FREE unbiased counseling and assistance with Medicare and other health insurance issues to Medicare beneficiaries and/or their representatives or those soon to be eligible for Medicare. Last year 30 trained SHINE volunteers donated 3,341 hours to provide one-on-one counseling to 3,890 consumers.

Your Aging Resource Center/Area Agency on Aging is constantly looking for dedicated volunteers to work in a variety of areas. Their outreach programs provide many opportunities for interested individuals to give of their time while improving the lives of others. ### Think about it. "UP"

Read until the end....you'll laugh....

This two-letter word in English has more meanings than any other two-letter word, and that word is 'UP.' It is listed in the dictionary as an [adv],[prep],[adj], [n] or [v].

It's easy to understand UP, meaning toward the sky or at the top of the list, but when we awaken in the morning, why do we wake UP?

At a meeting, why does a topic come UP? Why do we speak UP, and why are the officers UP for election and why is it UP to the secretary to write UP a report? We call UP our friends, brighten UP a room, polish UP the silver, warm UP the leftovers and clean UP the kitchen. We lock UP the house and fix UP the old car.

At other times this little word has real special meaning. People stir UP trouble, line UP for tickets, work UP an appetite, and think UP excuses.

To be dressed is one thing, but to be dressed UP is special.

And this UP is confusing: A drain must be opened UP because it is stopped UP.

We open UP a store in the morning but we close it UP at night. We seem to be pretty mixed UP about UP !

To be knowledgeable about the proper uses of UP, look UP the word UP in the dictionary. In a desk-sized dictionary, it takes UP almost 1/4 of the page and can add UP to about thirty definitions.

If you are UP to it, you might try building UP a list of the many ways UP is used. It will take UP a lot of your time, but if you don't give UP, you may wind UP with a hundred or more.

When it threatens to rain, we say it is clouding UP . When the sun comes out we say it is clearing UP. When it rains, it soaks UP the earth. When it does not rain for awhile, things dry UP. One could go on & on, but I'll wrap it UP, for now .....my time is UP !

Oh....one more thing: What is the first thing you do in the morning & the last thing you do at night?

U - P !

Did that one crack you UP?

Don't screw UP. Pass this on to everyone you look UP in your address book..or not...it's UP to you. Now I'll shut UP .

Avoid eating at night

Try to eat dinner earlier in the day and then fast for 14-16 hours until breakfast the next morning. Early studies suggest that this simple dietary adjustment—eating only when you're most active and giving your digestive system a long break each day—may help to regulate weight. After-dinner snacks tend to be high in fat and calories so are best avoided, anyway.

HUMAN AND SPIRITUAL VALUES

"Rather than love, than money, than fame, give me truth."

— Henry David Thoreau

Membership

Terrill Pyburn - Chairperson

Time to grow

Kiwanis International embarks on a second global campaign: membership.

Membership is more than a number. It's the future of everything members love about Kiwanis: a club's fellowship, leadership, community connections, community service and service to children. They all require Kiwanis members. Membership growth is every club's and every member's priority.

This past year, the Kiwanis International Board made membership health a priority. The result of this attention is a five-year, member-led global campaign for growth. Its purpose is to strengthen membership in existing clubs and open more healthy clubs in new communities.

Patterned in part after The Eliminate Project fundraising campaign, the membership initiative will draw on the expertise of clubs and members who have realized success in recruitment and new-club building. A structure of 2,700 volunteer growth leaders will be built at all levels of the organization, especially at the grass roots levels. This team will work in coordination and alignment with the elected leadership at the federation, district, division and club levels.

Members will have many opportunities to participate in the campaign: Sponsor new members. Help build new clubs. Serve as a club or district leader or on a club's membership committee. Or volunteer as a counselor to other clubs.

In support of the campaign, Kiwanis magazine will devote a page in each issue's News section to membership, featuring statistics, news, growth materials and more. Also, visit www.kiwanis.org/lovemyclub for membership resources.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Everyone loves music.

Music is everywhere, it pervades our world. Everyone knows music has power and importance. But have you ever stopped to consider why? What it is about music that gives it so much power and importance?

Here are seven top reasons:

- 1. Music is a universal language. It inspires common human feelings and bridges gaps between cultures that spoken languages cannot. It brings people together and creates universal community.
- 2. Music inspires and evokes emotion in a healthy way. It touches our emotional being and evokes moods and feelings that are sometimes difficult to express. It can change a difficult mood and make it happy or excited; it can change a light mood and take it deeper and more profound.
- 3. Music enhances learning and makes it more enjoyable. It is scientifically proven that music enhances brain functioning. Playing music uses many brain functions simultaneously: motor control, imagination, hearing, sight, memory, etc.
- 4. Music creates ambiance. You can use music in any environment to enhance and augment what is already there. Consider the difference between a party with music and one without, or a sporting event, or a movie, or a romantic restaurant, or driving in your car...
- 5. Music is spiritual. Music is of the spirit and inspirational to the spirit. All religions use music to help express spiritual values, and all religions use music to uplift the spirit.
- 6. Music sparks the imagination. It invokes mental imagery and inner scenery that opens the mind to amazing insight and spans the distance between the stars.
- 7. Music is a simple pleasure. All it takes is your ears and your imagination.

I believe that at the center of the phenomenon of the magic that music creates is the spiritual aspect. Music is a gift from God, a sacred expression of the Universal Life Force Energy that creates us all.

International President's Message

by Tom DeJulio, President of Kiwanis International

You say good-bye, I say hello

I must confess my puzzlement as a teenager when I first heard the lyrics to the famous Beatles tune, "Hello, Goodbye." Were the Beatles breaking up or not? Was the song about a relationship breakup where one wants to go and the other wants to stay? Or was it really a message for maintaining a positive outlook on things — "yes" a word of acceptance; "no" for pushing something away. As Rosemary and I complete our own "Magical Mystery Tour" of the Kiwanis world as your President and First Lady, grateful for the many new friends we made, we don't say goodbye; we say hello in a spirit of new beginnings.

Please be assured that we are not at all hesitant to get off our chairs and turn over the gavel of leadership to a truly amiable gentleman, Gunter Gasser, and his most gracious partner, Christiana. We wish these two dear friends the best and most successful year ever as they motivate another outstanding Kiwanis team of regional and district leaders in 2013-14.

We say "hello" to a very positive outlook for Kiwanis, driven by a multiyear strategic plan with bold new membership initiatives that will bring new life to the time-honored six Objects of Kiwanis. Using the strategic plan, we will all sing "hello" harmoniously from the same song sheet. The Bridge the Gap program will imbue an old Kiwanis adage "In Youth, We say "hello" to a very positive outlook for Kiwanis, driven by a multiyear strategic plan with bold new membership initiatives that will bring new life to the timehonored six Objects of Kiwanis. We Build" with a dynamic new spirit. No more goodbye to our graduating Key Club and Circle K members. We say "hello, hello, hello." Regarding our new strategic focus on the first 2,000 days of a child's life, we shout out boldly "hello, hello, hello."

Rosemary and I are planning to do all we can in whatever capacity needed as Kiwanis members to help "Build Bridges for Children to the Future." That bridge will connect with our Kiwanis-family network, inspire tens of thousands of new family members and advocate for the most vulnerable children who need more Kiwanis hands and hearts in their lives. Why say goodbye? Oh no, we say hello to Serving the Children of the World.
