Report from our Aug. 13, 2020 Meeting

President Robert Husman presiding

Pledge: Kevin Scott; prayer: Marty Villa

Guests: We had at least nine Key Club members with us this morning, representing Enochs, Gregori, Vanguard and the division. I think I got all the names: Isabella, Dakota, Marianna, Derry, Monica, Xander, Kat, Hya and Kaylee.

Board Report from the Aug. 5 board meeting.

Ken Nolte is now the chair for sponsored youth.

The board discussed options for the deinstallation dinner/event, usually held in late September. Possibilities include something in park, with room for social distancing; a special Zoom meeting; a hybrid, with the board members getting together and the event Zoomed for others. This will be discussed again at September board meeting.

Robert will let us know when more Kiwanis masks are available.

Last anyone heard, Howard Sweet is recuperating at home from COVID 19. He did not have to be hospitalized. Judy H will send a card on behalf of the club.

Weekly question from Robert: What are you doing as a community service?

John Sanders provided updated info re the new Graffiti museum at 9th and Coldwell. Tim Ragsdale is the project manager for the remodeling project. It will have meeting space but probably can't be used yet given state health orders regarding crowd size. Someone wants to operate a '50s diner in the facility.

Lori Rosman: Reminded everyone that the district convention is this weekend. She will send out Zoom links. She highlighted the keynote speaker on Saturday, who is very motivational.

Birthdays: Billy Ryan on Aug. 10. Isabella Mendoza has a birthday next Thursday.

Report from Aug. 13 Meeting Continued

Wedding anniversaries this week: Kyle and Julie Barker celebrate their 3rd.

John and Willi Sanders celebrate #54. They'll be going to Ray and Sharon's house for dinner.

Charlie and Trish Christensen celebrate #32

Marty and Erne Ruth had an anniversary in March but celebrated in last week in Cambria Pines, which is where they went 51 years ago on their honeymoon.

Membership anniversary: Clint Dunbar

Happy/Sad/Etc. Bucks:

Larry Hughes has a suggestion – don't ask your spouse to cut your hair. Allegedly Patti didn't even say oops when there was a slight mishap. Now Larry's hair is very short.

Kevin Scott: his son-in-law is back on land, arriving in Norfolk after 210 days at sea in the Navy.

Marty is concerned about his brother, who is the incident commander on the big Pine Gulch Fire near Grand Junction, Col.

Adrian Crane was part of a foursome that hiked the 100-mile Western States Run. They saw no one for the first 90 miles. Also on the trek: Joann Hull Grether, former NMK member and president.

Lori is happy she got to spend a day with her grandkids. And BTW, the Modesto Kiwanis Club held its first in person meeting at The Post. They also had Zoom going for those who could not attend in person.

Mike Boyd is happy that his daughter and grandkids will be visiting next week from Oregon. They'll go to Strawberry for one last stay in the cabin, which Mike has finally sold.

Doug and Peggy Van Den Enden have been on the road since June 23 with their new trailer. Doug and Judy Hardie will see them soon in Reno.

Bob Riedel: Eileen had successful knee replacement surgery.

John Sanders is sad that Cooper Bairey is now more eager to see that the cat than John when he goes on his neighborhood walk.
