Pledge: Laura Maki

Prayer: Phil Fugit

Several late arrivals were fined, Aaron Kellums, Bill 'firefighter' Schwarz, Anna Kanbara, Jeremiah Williams.

Guests:

On Zoom:

Brisa, VCPA VP

Selena VCPA secretary

In Person:

Veronica Romero and Sayeeda guests of Marty

Jim Graham, Pete Vella and Bill Michaels have not been seen for a few weeks so it was nice to have them attend.

Board mtg.

The board transferred $35000 to the car show account to cover cash flow needs. Suppliers are requiring more up-front money since the pandemic and our entry fees are coming in closer to the event due to delays in opening sign-ups as we wait for confirmation of the situation. The board has no doubt that the necessary entries will be forthcoming to cover the transfer. Sale of the no longer needed CAGG trailer and gear has been finalized.

6 month contract at Michaels is planned so we can move our weekly meetings to a location with breakfast. Cost will be $15 for full breakfast and $10 for oatmeal.

Announcements:

Marty Villa announced additional information on the Peace Paths: Veronica the VP at Kirschen elementary gave a brief explanation of how valuable they are. Veronica described how it works to resolve conflicts. It is part of restorative practicing training that all schools do.

Special thanks to Ken Nolte, Brian Sanders, Tom Arnold, Dale Cathcart for their work at Kirschen. Also painted were Peace Paths at Marshal and Orville Wright schools.

In the second week, Burbank, Fremont, Lakewood had Peace Paths painted with additional help from Ken Nolte, Anna Kanbara, Lori Rosman, Laura Maki, Adrian Crane. The major chore was scraping old paint off the stencils.

Jim Felt requested that Veronica return to give a full report on progress after a little while.

Oakdale Kiwanis Club would appreciate any help at a fundraiser on July 17th, 11 to 2. Kerr Park Oakdale.

Bob Dunbar interrupted and paid $1 fine.

Then Ken Nolte wanted a demo of President Husmans fuzzy dice and his table paid ended up paying $7.

Lori Rosman Lt Gov Div 46 said that only 1/3 rd of 150 clubs in Cal Nev Ha get distinguished status. Last year was interrupted by Covid. Distinguished Club was presented to our Pres Robert Husman.

Marty Villa questioned whether it was not an 'Extinguished' pres.

Ken Darby needs graffiti posters for poster frames.

Am Graf Festival: August 20-22nd be there or be square. Actually just be there please, for a great weekend of fun.

The Hughes family has registered 180 cars, but wait - 230 now by this morning. First 800 are in the parade. Doug Hardie modeled the 2000 version shirt.

Volunteer Efforts:

What has anyone done to help the community:

Marty and crew painted Peace Paths.

Happy buck.

Gary Goodman. 4th of July parade. Great grandkids enjoyed. Well attended. Plus savemart robots were there as well as Star Wars characters.

Jennifer happy for Kyle on parade in Barker music float.

Jeremiah, happy for a successful 4th July parade. 20000 people. And Joan Rutschow at the parade. Parade went well.

Anna Kanbara. Wished she had more money. Happy for parade. Hubby played in a Teachers vs Nurses game and got injured. Even worse, the nurses won. Jeremiah sang.

Doug Hardie. $20. Memories of Enslin.
