NORTH MODESTO

Loren, during Loren's admin he called on Stan Stewart for prayer, Stan did a double take. Loren was reminded by Brent reaction when he thought he was called for prayer!

Jim Felt: He and wife Cindy got thru health problems and Covid.

Bob Dunbar, got to drive his Porsche to the club today. Has outlived three barbers.

Larry Hughes, Patty insulated the ceiling of his garage as a birthday gift for him. May have ended up with a staple thru his camera cable!

Aaron, sad buck for missing the barbecue.

Brent Burnside, remember Sean from his stories when he first came to do construction at his house. Also Susan and Brent got confused on where to go in the Delta. Invited by the sheriffs boat to do a general boaters inspection. Fire extinguisher goes off. Susan had no boaters card but was at the wheel. Got Invited to the Sheriffs boat for a sobriety test. Passed with flying colors. No ticket, unlike other nearby boats. Probably landed and celebrated.

Steve Collins, historic flashback. Program of National Organization for Women. First question, 'what are you girls so angry about'!

Robert Husman, spent time with an old friend in the hills.

Gary Goodman, enjoyed meeting Skips mother at the barbecue.

PROGRAM

Steve Collins introduced Gabby Guerrini from the State Theater. She already had friends in half the people here having been involved in many Modesto events. Born in Cupertino and attended Stanislaus State. Taught ESL at MJC where Steve first met her.

The neighboring 'Money Mart' on J street came up for lease and the State Theater took it on as the 'Intermission'. Will be available for local arts to display in a smaller space than the full State Theater. Approximately 30 person capacity. Outdoor seating. Bar. Not a full kitchen. Will be interconnected with the State, the Jewel (a micro cinema) and the new 'Intermission'.

Can be rented for 350 dollars for events and shows. Local restaurants are available to bring food for events.

NORTH MODESTO

There is a lot of talent and under 21 talent that don't have a lot of places to go in town and this will add to the choices.

Jewel opened December 2019. In January. A ceiling problem closed them for a month and they then opened mid February just as Covid hit. So it is almost like the Jewel just opened. Available to bring your own movie and a group to the venue.

Randy Siefkin is on the State Theater board. Is a 'Cinophile', film lover. Runs the Modesto Film Society and always comes to the monthly movie in costume and armed with trivia. The State is in the League of Historic Art Houses. Randy won the individual award for support of an Art House Theater. Gabby went to Cleveland for the annual conference and with Randy was invited to the Presidents table as Randy, unknown to him, was selected for this major award. Randy accepted in great style.

The theater has a revised website by Roundhouse Designs web creators which is attractive and easily navigable.
