NORTH MODESTO

Bulletin from Sept. 15, 2022 meeting

Presiding: Aaron Kellums had a big smile presiding over his final meeting as president.

Song: Gary Goodman

Pledge: Gary Wasmund

Prayer: Larry Hughes

Guests: Nan Jacobs, guest of Lori Rosman, is back and plans to transfer from Modesto Kiwanis to NMK.

Ken Nolte introduce Vanguard Key Club member Selina Little and her mother, Anna

Aaron introduced his nephew, Ryan Woods

Good of the Community: Lori has been baking desserts all week for Friday's deinstallation dinner.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Aaron reminder: Deinstallation dinner will be this Friday (tomorrow) beginning at 5:30 p.m. at Randy and Denise Cook's place. Tickets were to be purchased in advance. If you asked for a ticket but didn't pay, please find Jim Felt or Karen Bettencourt at the event. They will not be sitting at a table waiting. Help will be needed after 2:30 p.m. in setting up.

Judy Herrero: We are getting a new design for our American Graffiti website and want to emphasize the kids that we serve and the family fun at the festival. Anyone who has pictures of people having fun, either kids or adults, at the parade/show from 2022 or previous, please send them as JPG attachments to the car show email address – nmkcarshow@gmail.com. Photos are needed by next Thursday, Sept. 22. Questions? Talk to Channa King or Judy.

Ana Kanbara: A Key Club student needs a volunteer (or two) to serve as a speech judge in order for her to complete in a tournament this Saturday. Please contact Ana quickly if you can help.

INTERCLUB

Ken Darby: InterClubs completed for 2021-22. Twenty-seven different members participated in one or more. He passed the list around and urged others to attend an InterClub next year.

SOCIALS

Randy Cook: Deinstallation dinner will be Friday, Sept. 16

Next up: Wine in Lodi on Oct. 29. The signup list was passed this week and will go around at least a couple more times. Organizer Rich Reimche needs signups by mid-October.

BIRTHDAYS:

Not present: Bob Riedel, Ray Sanders, Howard Sweet. Catchup: Gary Zimmerman was in the hospital last week and missed the meeting. He was back today and we sang our usual (awful) version of Happy Birthday

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES:

Gary and Sandy Goodman celebrating #20.

Robert and Kari Husman. Not present

CLUB ANNIVERSARIES:

Britta Skavdahl – nine years.

HAPPY/SAD BUCKS

Charlie Christensen: John Errol had a good reason for missing this morning's meeting. He and Caroline are expecting baby #2 any day.

Larry Hughes: Went to a gathering of Class of 1960 classmates from Turlock High School. Wow, they looked old.

Jennifer Mullen: Invited folks to the Graffiti USA Museum between 10 and 4 tomorrow, when U.S. Postal Service is celebrating a new stamp commemorating classic pony cars.

Nan Jacobs: happy to return from a trip to Houston, where they celebrated the 10th birthday of their grandson and went to several sporting events involving their granddaughter.

NORTH MODESTO

Randy Cook: Happy to play in the Salvation Army benefit golf tourney and place second with Nikko Nakai.

Sue Jensen: Had a happy reason to miss last week's meeting: a great time at the Motley Crue concert.

Larry Hughes: Sad Aaron is stepping down but we just don't want to pay for it. He upped his $10 to $20

Bob Dunbar: Watched three of his grandson's Little League games, which ended with one win.

NEW MEMBER INDUCTIONS

We welcomed two new members this morning: Nikko Nakai and Sue Jensen.

Nikko works with Randy at Morgan Stanley. He grew up in Modesto, attending Downey High School and then Sonoma State and then Cal Poly. He worked in other fields before becoming a financial planner.

Sue grew up in Ripon and spent most of her career in real estate and related professions. She is now self-employed.

MARBLE DRAW –

Last week Ken Nolte won the marble raffle and this week Ken Darby pulled a red marble from a full bag.

LUNCH MONEY – Gary Wasmund

Meeting Adjourned at 7:50 a.m.
