PROGRAM: Jeremiah introduced our guest speaker, John Castillo, who spoke about the Forward Together initiative. John moved here in 1974 and is currently on the board for the Modesto Peace Life Center.

Forward Together is an initiative to determine whether or not we need a police oversight committee that was spurred by the death of George Floyd. The process is not meant to attack law enforcement, but to work with the police department to help alleviate their workload. The Community Health and Assistance Team (CHAT) are mental health clinicians who are dispatched at the same time as law enforcement to assess situations. “There is a whole world out there that we don’t understand and it’s time to listen. We all need monitoring. Human beings if left to their own devices, would wreak havoc”.

This initiative is working with the community to determine what they feel is important. After community input, there were three themes that were brought to attention:

- Policies and procedures
- Alternate response models
- Accountability

MARBLE DRAW: Gary Wasmund with the white

LUNCH MONEY: Alan Ramsey
